

Securing Critical Information Infrastructures

Training Course – Update on Recent Network Attacks and Hacker Methods

Length – 4 Hours

Course Description

This course will provide an update on recent hacker attacks and the methods being used by hackers. Issues such as SPAM, bot-nets, overseas hackers, money mules and other current threats will be discussed in detail. The students will learn about these new attacks and the possible affect on their own networks. The goal of this class is enable the students to be current on the new threats to their network.

Course Outline

- Recent hacker attacks and successes
 - Changes in hacker motivation – rise of professional hacking
 - Recent increase in image SPAM and SPIM (SPAM over IM)
 - Cyber Criminals and Money Mules
 - Bot-nets and zombies – cyber extortion
 - Phishing and other identity theft attacks
 - Discussion of these methods and possible threats to the customer network
 - Counter-strategies and other methods to thwart new attacks
-

For more information on this or any other Lofty Perch training, contact us at training@loftyperch.com